What is Individual Advocacy?

SAS helps people with an intellectual disability to speak up for themselves. This is called self advocacy.

SAS can now also help you if you need help to speak up for your rights. This is called individual advocacy.

An individual advocate:

- Is someone who stands up for your rights
- Can help you solve your problem
- Is on your side
- Can help any person with disability

What areas do we cover?

We can now provide individual advocacy support to all people with disability who live in:

- Auburn
- Baulkham Hills
- Blacktown
- Guildford
- Hawkesbury
- Ku-ring-Gai
- Merrylands

Our staff:

- Deborah Ma
Individual Advocacy Coordinator
- Cynthia Buthapaty
Individual Advocacy Officer

How can we help?

Our staff can help you with:

- Information – telling you about your rights and where you can get help
- Advocacy – working with you to help solve your problems
- Mentoring – talking to you about ways you can solve your problem

What can we help you with?

If you are a person with disability and you have a problem, we can help you solve it. We can help if you:

- Cannot get a service you need
- You are not happy with a service
- Have issues with a government department
- Need help speaking to a government department
- Need to make a complaint
- Are experiencing abuse
- Are experiencing discrimination
- Need support when you are facing a big change in your life
- Need assistance with information and advice
